ARTICLE VII

Policies

Section 1: Status

The MSRT shall be non-profit, non-commercial, and non-sectarian. No commercial enterprise or any candidate for public office shall be endorsed by it. The name of the MSRT or any of its Board of Directors or its staff in their official capacities, shall not be used in connection with a corporate company for other than the regular functions of the MSRT.

Section 2: Opportunity

The MSRT is committed to equal opportunity and nondiscrimination in all programs, practices, activities, and benefits. No one shall be denied opportunities or benefits on the basis of age, sex, color, race, creed, national origin, religious persuasion, marital status, sexual orientation, gender identity, military status, political belief or disability. The MSRT shall be compliant with all state and federal guidelines regarding anti-discrimination practices.

Section 3: Board of Directors Associations

The MSRT Board of Directors and its agents shall not hold any substantial ownership interest in an outside concern from which the MSRT secures goods or services.

Section 4: Privacy

It is the policy of the MSRT that all matters of MSRT business brought to the attention of members of the Board of Directors are confidential.

ARTICLE VIII Indemnification

To the greatest extent of the laws of the State of Massachusetts, every officer, director, employee, or delegate of the MSRT shall be indemnified by the MSRT against all expenses and liabilities, including attorney's fees, in connection with any threatened, pending, or completed proceeding in which the above-named individual is involved by reason of being or having been an officer, director, employee or delegate of the MSRT. If the above-named individual acted in good faith and within the scope of the above-named individual's authority and in a manner reasonably believed to be not opposed to the best interests of the MSRT. In no event shall indemnification be paid to or on behalf of any above-named individual going beyond or acting beyond the powers granted by authority of this organization or bylaw. The foregoing right of indemnification shall be in addition to, and not exclusive of, all other rights to which such officer, director, employee or delegate may be entitled.

ARTICLE IX Meetings

Section 1: Annual Meeting

- A. The MSRT shall hold an annual meeting in the spring of each year.
- B. A quorum for any business meeting shall consist of not less than twenty-five (25) voting members, including two officers.

Section 2: Special Meetings

Special meetings of the MSRT may be called at such time and place as may be designated by the Board of Directors. A majority of this group shall constitute sufficient authority. Members shall be notified at least fifteen (15) days in advance of such meetings, together with a statement of the business to be transacted.

Section 3: Meetings

- A. The Board of Directors shall meet at least six (6) times per year.
- B. The President, or a majority of the members of the Board of Directors, upon written request to the chairman of the Board, may call a special meeting, provided a fifteen (15) day notice to all Board members is given.
- C. Meetings of the Board may be held by teleconference, at the discretion of the Chairman. Members of the Board shall each pay their own costs associated with participating in a teleconference, although the Society may pay set-up costs or other administrative costs of holding a special meeting by teleconference. Standing rules specific to meetings held by teleconference may be adopted by the Board. The Secretary shall be responsible for preparing minutes of all meetings conducted via teleconference.

Section 4: Quorum

A majority of the Board of Directors' members shall constitute a quorum for all meetings.

Section 5: Exception

No member of the Board of Directors shall receive compensation for performing duties consistent with their office, but may be reimbursed for travel and other expenses incurred while discharging official duties for the MSRT.

Section 6: Censure, Reprimand and Removal

Any Board member may be censured, reprimanded or removed from the position for dereliction of duty or conduct detrimental to the MSRT. Such action may be initiated when the Board of Directors receives formal and specific charges against a Board member.

- A. If the Board of Directors deems the charges to be sufficient, the person charged shall be advised, in writing, of the charges.
- B. A statement of the charges shall be sent by certified or registered mail to the last recorded address of the Board member at least twenty (20) days before final action is taken.
- C. The statement shall be accompanied by a notice of the time and place of the meeting of the Board of Directors at which the charges shall be considered.
- D. The Board member shall have the opportunity to appear in person and be represented by counsel to present any defense to such charges before action is taken.
- E. Censure, reprimand or removal shall be by two-thirds (2/3) vote of the remaining membership of the Board of Directors.

ARTICLE XI Committees

- A. The Board of Directors may establish standing and/or special committees as deemed necessary to aid the MSRT in carrying out its activities. Such Committees shall be responsible to the Board of Directors and may be altered or eliminated at any time by the Board of Directors.
- B. The President shall appoint the Chairman to each committee, who may in turn appoint members of these respective committees with the approval of the President, unless it conflicts with other sections of the bylaws.
- C. The appointing authority shall provide charges to the committees.
- D. Standing committees shall include:
 1. Annual Conference Committee
 2. Governmental Affairs Committee
 3. Nominating Committee

ARTICLE XII

MSRT Delegates to the ASRT House of Delegates

Section 1: Delegates

- A. The MSRT shall appoint two (2) delegates and an alternate(s) to the ASRT House of Delegates.
- B. The MSRT shall submit to ASRT the names of the MSRT delegates and alternate delegate(s) by the last business day of January or the MSRT delegate positions shall remain open until after the ASRT House of Delegates' meeting.
- C. The MSRT has the power to remove delegates according to the guidelines established in Section 7 of this Article.

Section 2: Qualifications

- A. Attend the ASRT House of Delegates' meeting and all meetings required of delegates.
- B. Respond to communications from the ASRT Office, ASRT Board of Directors or from the ASRT House of Delegates.
- C. Disseminate information to the MSRT.

Section 4: Absence

An absence exists when an appointed MSRT delegate is unable to fulfill the duties of the position during the ASRT House of Delegates' meeting. The delegate shall be considered absent for the purpose of that meeting only. It is the responsibility of the MSRT delegate to notify the ASRT, the Speaker of the House, and the alternate delegate of the delegate's inability to attend the conference, as soon as possible. The alternate delegate shall be seated for that meeting only. Any delegate position or alternate delegate position not filled by the appointment process remains open. There shall be no on-site credentialing of delegates.

Section 5: Vacancies

A vacancy exists when a delegate has submitted a written letter of resignation or when a delegate position has not been filled by the appointment process. A delegate vacancy caused by the written resignation of a delegate shall be filled by the appointed alternate delegate.

Section 6: Censure, Reprimand and Removal

Any MSRT delegate may be censured, reprimanded or removed from the position for dereliction of duty or conduct detrimental to the ASRT or the MSRT. Such action may be initiated when either Board of Directors receives formal and specific charges against the delegate.

- A. If the Board of Directors deems the charges to be sufficient, the person charged shall be advised, in writing, of the charges.
- B. A statement of the charges shall be sent by certified or registered mail to the last recorded address of the delegate at least twenty (20) days before final action is taken.
- C. The statement shall be accompanied by a notice of the time and place of the meeting of the Board of Directors at which the charges shall be considered.
- D. The delegate shall have the opportunity to appear in person and be represented by counsel to present any defense to such charges before action is taken.
- E. Censure, reprimand or removal shall be by two-thirds (2/3) vote of the respective Board of Directors.

ARTICLE XIII

Parliamentary Authority

The rules contained in the current edition of Robert's Rules of Order Newly Revised shall govern the MSRT in all cases to which they are applicable and in which they are consistent with these bylaws.

ARTICLE XIV

Standing Rules

Standing rules, adopted by the Board of Directors, shall be in effect until the annual meeting at which time they must be rescinded by the Board of Directors or presented at the annual meeting for ratification. When ratified at the annual meeting, they shall remain in force until rescinded, amended or otherwise disposed of.

ARTICLE XV

Amendments

- A. Amendments to these bylaws may be made by a two-thirds (2/3) vote of members at any business meeting of the MSRT. Notice of such proposed amendments shall be sent to the membership at least fifteen (15) days prior to the time of voting.
- B. Amendments shall be effective at the conclusion of the business meeting unless otherwise specified.

ARTICLE XVI

Dissolution

In the event of dissolution or final liquidation of the MSRT, all of its assets remaining, after payment of its obligations have been made or provided for, shall be distributed among such corporations, foundations, or other organizations, organized and operated exclusively for scientific and educational purposes, consistent with those of the MSRT, as shall be designated by the Board of Directors.
